PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT SECTION 51 MANUAL OF THE FACE AND BODY PLACE

This Manual is published in terms of Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) (“the Act”). The Act gives effect to the provisions of Section 32 of the Constitution, which provides for the right of access to information held by the State and/or held by a private person or entity where such information is required to protect rights.

OVERVIEW

THE FACE AND BODY PLACE is a practice in the field MEDICINE. We specialise in AESTHETIC AND WELLNESS MEDICINE. We work in the health sector and are healthcare professionals registered under the Health Professions Act of 1974 and are subject to the rules and regulations of the Health Professions Council of SA (HPCSA).

This manual serves to inform members of the public of the categories of information we hold, and which may, subject to the grounds of refusal listed in the Act, be disclosed after evaluation of an access application being made in terms of the Act.

AVAILABILITY OF THIS MANUAL

A copy of this manual is available -

- At our office at 2nd Floor, South Building, Centre of Advanced Medicine, 13 Scott St, Waverley
- On request from our Information Officer, details below.
- On our website: www.faceandbody.co.za

OUR INFORMATION OFFICER

Our Information Officer is: Dr Gordon Cohen, Chief Medical Officer, The Face and Body Place; (011)2149940 and drg@faceandbody.co.za

HOW TO REQUEST ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY THE FACE AND BODY PLACE

Requests for access to records held by THE FACE AND BODY PLACE must be made on the request form that are attached to this Manual or available from our rooms, or from:

https://www.justice.gov.za/forms/paia/J752_paia_Form%20C.pdf, attached as Annexure A, (“Request Form”).

When a record is requested, the following will apply:

- Fees may be payable as prescribed by law.
- The Request Form must be completed by the Requester. On the Request Form all details must be completed, including the right the requester wants to protect by requesting the information and WHY access to the information is required.
- If the requester is acting on behalf of someone else, the signature of the other person as the one who has authorised the request must be provided. In order to verify this, the practice may require further proof such as an identify document or may call the person whose information it is to verify that s/he has given permission for the other person to access the information on his/her behalf.
- The requester must state in which format (inspection of copy, paper copy, electronic copy, transcript, etc) s/he wants to access the information.
- If the record is part of another record, the requester will only be able to access the part(s) that pertains to the information s/he wants or is entitled to, and not the rest of the record.

All requests will be evaluated against the provisions of the Act. The Information Officer to refuse access on grounds stipulated in the Act. One can, for example, not access another person's confidential information, or trade- or commercial secrets of a business. An answer on a request for information must be provided within 30 days of the request, and if not granted and the requester is not satisfied, s/he can approach the courts within 30 days.

HOW THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT WORKS

The Act provides that a requester may be provided access to records of a private body, if the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the interest of the public.

Requests under the Act must be made in terms of the procedures prescribed by the Act, at the rates provided. The forms and tariff are dealt with under section 53 and 54 of the Act.

More information on how the Act works and all other information including the Section 10 Guide can be obtained from the South African Human Rights Commission at:

RECORDS HELD BY THE FACE AND BODY PLACE AND RELATED CATEGORIES OF DATA SUBJECTS

We hold records in the categories listed below. The fact that we list a record type here does not necessarily mean that we will disclose such records, and all access is subject to the evaluation processes outlined herein, which will be exercised in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

Internal records relating to our business, which includes our business's founding and other documents, minutes and policies; annual and other reports; financial records; operational records, policies and procedures; contracts; licences, trademarks and other intellectual property; production, marketing records; other internal policies and procedures; internal correspondence; statutory records; insurance policies and records; etc.

Personnel records, which includes records of temporary/fixed term/part-time/permanent employees, locums, associates, contractors, partners, directors (executive and non-executive). Records include personal files, records third parties have provided to us about their / our staff; employment contracts, conditions of employment; workplace policies; disciplinary records; termination records; minutes of staff meetings; performance management records and systems and all employment-related correspondence.

Client/patient records, which includes client/patient lists; health records; medical reports; funding records; agreements; consents; needs assessments; financial and accounts information; research information; evaluation records; profiling; and similar information. It must be noted that, in the health sector, personal and patient information are protected by legislation and ethical rules, and disclosure can only take place, if at all, within those frameworks.

Supplier and service provider records, which includes supplier registrations; contracts; confidentiality agreements and non-disclosure agreements, communications; logs; delivery records; commissioned work; and similar information, some of which might be provided to us by such suppliers and providers under service- and other contacts.

Technical records, which includes manuals, logs, electronic and cached information, product registrations, product dossiers, health professional council / statutory body records, approvals, conditions and requirements, trade association information and similar product information.

Third party information, which may be in our possession, but which would be subject to the conditions set in relation to such possession and use or purpose limitations.

Environment and market information, which include information bought, publicly available information and commissioned information which pertains to the specific sector and market of our business and factors that affect the business, professional and healthcare environment.

CATEGORIES OF RECIPIENTS OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may, as authorised by the National Health Act, share relevant personal and health information with the hospitals we work in, with other service providers who are involved in your care and where such sharing is in your best interest and to medical schemes, where applicable. We also have to, by law, report adverse events of products (medicines / devices) to the SA Health Products Regulatory Authority and the company whose products it is.

PLANNED TRANS-BORDER FLOW OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Practice does have any planned trans-border flow of personal information and we will obtain requisite permission from patients for flow of such personal information.

PURPOSE OF THE PROCESSING OF THE RECORDS REFERRED TO

The purpose of processing the information contained in the records listed above, is:

- In relation to the business/internal records: For good corporate governance and to comply with business and tax legislation.
- In relation to Employees: for retention of employment records as legislated and execution of employer/employee agreements and labour legislation.
- In relation to Patients: for retention of records as required by law and to provide healthcare services, to access health products (prescriptions and products orders) and for the collection of fees for the services so provided. Where the Practice participates in Registries or other databases, the specific consents signed by patients to have their information included, will disclose the purpose of such databased.
- In relation to Suppliers and Service Providers: for record retention as legislated and for the execution of the supplier- and service level agreements.

THE SUITABILITY OF THE INFORMATION SECURITY MEASURES

The business store information electronically and physically as follows:

- Physical records are kept in locked cabinets at the business, which is locked when not in use, and at the end of each day and only FOUR people have access to the keys to the filing and other storage cabinet, as well as the office(s) of the practice. There is an alarm system, fire alarm and video/camera recording system.
- Copies of records are kept in the lockable filing cabinet in the practice.
- Electronic records are kept on office computers which are password protected, with software regularly updated to protect against hacking, unauthorised access, tampering and the likes, and staff are trained to avoid practices that could place records at risk and on good practices that would keep electronic information reasonably secure.
- Records are archived every day and such archiving facility is secure in that it is locked.

PRESCRIBED FEES

The following applies to requests other than personal requests:

- The requestor is required to pay the prescribed fee of R50 before the request will be processed.
- If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed 6 (six) hours, a deposit of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the access was granted, shall be payable.
- The requestor may lodge an application with a court against the tender/payment of the request fee and/or deposit.
- Records may be withheld until fees have been paid.
- The latest fee structure is available on the website of the SAHRC at www.sahrc.org.za and attached hereto as Annexure B.
